Team Building Games Summary

Ice Breakers

Token Tales

Start the session by choosing a Monopoly token that represents you. Share a fun fact, a hidden talent, and the celebrity you'd travel with. It's a great way for everyone to warm up and discover new sides to their teammates.

Truths & a Lie

Put your bluffing skills to the test! Share two true facts and one lie about yourself. Your teammates will bet Monopoly Money on which statement is false. The more people you fool, the more M$ you win!

Problem Solving

Charade Challenge

Classic charades with a twist! One teammate acts out mystery words—no talking allowed—while the rest guess under pressure. Earn M$100 for each correct guess.

Monopoly Trivia

Test your brainpower with Monopoly-themed trivia, logic puzzles, and maths riddles. Bet M$10 or M$100 on your answers. Get it right, double your cash. Get it wrong, lose it to the bank!

Rope Resolve

Pairs must untangle themselves from a rope knot without letting go. It's a test of teamwork, strategy, and communication under pressure.

Teamwork

Who Am I?

Wear a mystery identity on your head—your teammates can only help you guess using yes/no clues or body language. Use your M$ wisely to buy hints!

Ping Pong Relay

Pass a ping pong ball from teammate to teammate using only two strings each—no hands allowed! Precision and teamwork are everything.

Just For Fun

Skyscraper Stack

Build the tallest tower using only cups—and either balloons or strings. Every cup costs M$, so spend smart and build tall!

Token Tussle

A high-energy reflex game where two players race to grab a plush token after a series of fake-outs. Win M$100 for each grab!

Ddakji Derby

Inspired by a Korean flipping game—each player uses their paper tile to flip opponents' tiles and win hidden M$ amounts. Strategy meets skill in this addictive mini-duel.

 Got a different vibe in mind? We can easily adjust the games to match your team's energy, goals, and schedule!
